

56

PADUA'S FOURTEENTH-CENTURY FRESCO CYCLES

The 14th-century fresco cycles of Padua are a series of wonderful paintings that decorate the walls of churches and palaces. These frescoes tell Bible stories, legends, and scenes from daily life. Among the most famous is the one in the Scrovegni Chapel, which shows the story of Mary and Jesus.

TRACE AND COLOR THIS SCENE
WHERE THE WISE MEN VISIT
BABY JESUS!

EO Roy, Shutterstock ©

unesco
Patrimonio Mondiale in Italia
Quiz